CIRL STABS AND

Pretty Mamie Powell Turns Highwayman and Is Caught After FUND FOR VENICE CAMPANILE. Chase.

tions for the Venice Campanile fund.

Edward C. Wallace, millionaire, applied to Justice Cochrane, in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, for permission to appeal from the decision of Justice

It is reported that Howard Gould is

Albert Ludwig, twenty, of No. 310 East

A turtle that weighed eighty-two

It is expected that the President and Suit has been brought in the Supreme

Vice-Chancellor Stevenson, sitting in Chancery Chambers, Jersey City, Has appointed James Connolly, a lawyer, of Elizabeth, N. J., receiver of the Times Publishing Company of that city.

It is rumored that Inspector Walter

CABLE.

MANILA, Aug. 19 .- The native crew

terests has led to somewhat strained relations between the United States Lega-tion and the Porte. Diplomatic circles anticipate further delay and that this may possibly lead to a sharp reminder from the United States.

MANILA, Aug. 19.—A force of native constabulary engaged a band of ladrones in a sharp fight last Saturday near Caloocan, four miles north of Ma-

HOPED TO STEAL $150,000.

TURKEY STILL BACKWARD.

ROOSEVELT BOYS IN SHOW.

RECEIVER FOR A PAPER.

THOMPSON TO RETIRE.

VICTIM A POWERFUL ONE.

VICTIM A POWERFUL ONE.

The club has undertaken the work in recognition of the courtesies extended to American art students in all the art centres of Italy, where the public collections are always open for their benefit without charge. Checks to the fund should be drawn to the order of Spencer Trask, treasurer, and sent to the National Arts Club, or in care of Spencer Trask & Co., No. 27 Pine street. She Knocks Down James Mamie Powell, pretty, slight and only twenty-one, started her career to-day as a highway robber.

Armed with a knife with a blade four inches long and sharpened on both edges down to the appearance known citizen of Harlem, a man of ATTACKS YONKERS MAYOR. powerful physique, in the gray hour stabbed him three or four times and uables, and sped away, only to be TO ANNUL CONTRACT MARRIAGE. caught after a chase of three blocks and taken to court.

judge by her tears and her pitiful GOULD MAY BUY ESTATE. plea that she and not the man had been the victim of a highway robbery. But the evidence and the respectability of her accuser were too strong, and she was held for trial in $1,000 bail.

James Kennedy, of No. 2154 Lexington links and will build a club-house.

James Kennedy, of No. 2154 Lexington avenue, was the victim of the girl rob- IMPALED ON THE FENCE. He is a six-footer, broad shouldered and muscular. As foreman of the Ninety-fourth street, tried to vault over United States Plastering Company he the iron picket fence about the grounds happy to get back again." is obliged to rise at 3. in the morning of the St. Joseph's Home, at Ninetieth and go to work.

This morning he walked down Lexington avenue and into One Hundred and street and Avenue A. One of the pickets penetrated his back. At the Presbyterian Hospital Surgeon Van Ingen said he did not think the patient would live. Twenty-seventh street to take a Third BIG TURTLE IN NEWARK BAY. avenue car downtown. In front of No. 125 West One Hundred and Twenty-sev-

"Oh, sir," she cried, seizing Mr. Kennedy's arm, "please take me home. I am pursued by enemies and have no one to protect me!".

But her black eyes flashed with fierce his boys will enter one or more of their horses at the horse show to be held near Sagamore Hill on Centre Island some time in September. menace and not with anything like fear. CONFEDERATED SOCIETY SUED. and she held one hand behind her sus-piciously. Mr. Kennedy realized at once piciously. Mr. Kennedy realized at once that he was "up against a brace game," to use his own words. So he shook off her hand and backed away.

"Give me money, then," she said, her voice growing more stern.

"I have none," said the man, and he started to cross the street.

Court, in Brooklyn, against the content of the superintendent of the superinte Fights Like a Tigress.

In a second the girl was upon him. In the hand she kept behind her flashed the long blade of a knife and a moment later the girl was stabbing Mr. Kennedy in the left side, near the waist, with all her strength. His clothing prevented her from seriously wounding him, but she fought like a tigress, and the force of her blows knocked him down, big as he was and frail as was down, big as he was and frail as was his assailant.

Before he could recover from his surprise at the unexpected fury of her attack the girl had deftly run through his pockets and taken his gold watch and chain and $27. Then she sped away. Her victim shouted:

"Police! Police!"

Keenedy could not even rise.

"Murder!" he shouted.

Policeman Burlingham came down.

Policeman Burlingham came down One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street of the political prison in Caracas, is in this city. He is reticent about the re-bellion in Venezuela. He also refuses to divulge the object of his visit. "Catch her! She's killed me!" cried Kennedy, pointing to the girl. It took the policeman three blocks of hard running to overtake her. On the way she tossed away Mr. Kennedy's watch and chain. It was found shattered in an areaway. In the bosom of the girl's shirtwaist the policeman found Kennedy's 27, and in her skirt pocket the blood-stained knife.

He took her to the station, and later to Harlem Police Court. She said she lived at No. 327 West Thirty-ninth street, but she is not known in that neighborhood.

There she melted into tears before Magistrate Zeller and said she had been to a party and that "this man." pointing at Kennedy, had tried to hold her up. She was held in $1,000 bail.

She is pretty, dark of hair and eyes, and has a clear complexion, with dimpled cheeks. She wore a straw sailor hat, a black cloth walking skirt and a white shirt waist. Catch her! She's killed me!" cried

ROSE COGHLAN'S MISTAKE.

Astrona Applies Carbelle Acid to Her Face and Is Badly Injured. TORY BEATEN IN BELFAST. HELENA, Mont., Aug. 19.-Rose Cogh-

LONDON, Aug. 19.—Thomas Sloan, of the Protestant Association, candidate weeks ago announced her intention in for the House of Commons, has been the District Court here of becoming an elected by a majority of 826 votes over American citizen in order that she might Buller (Unionist), in South Beifast Divis-purchase land and engage in the cattlle business, came back to Helena after three cities returned without opposition. having returned from the northern part LOST LIFE IN ALPS.

having returned from the northern part of the county, where she bought a large tract of land which she will stock with thoroughbred cartile.

In her apartments at a local hotel last night she applied carbolic acid in a liberal manner all over her face, having mistaken it for a mild solution she had used for years as a lotton. She had tubbed her features with the acid thoroughly before discovering the mistake, and while it was several hours before the doctors could relieve the excruciating pain, it is not thought her features will be permanently impaired.

LOST LIFE IN ALPS.

ZERMATT, Switzerland, Aug. 19.—The body of Dr. Largin, Chief Judge of the Berne Court, has been found at the body of Dr. Largin, Chief Judge of the Berne Court, has been found at the body of Dr. Largin, Chief Judge of the Berne Court, has been found at the body of Dr. Largin, Chief Judge of the Berne Court, has been found at the body of Dr. Largin, Chief Judge of the Berne Court, has been found at the body of Dr. Largin, Chief Judge of the Berne Court, has been found at the body of Dr. Largin, Chief Judge of the Berne Court, has been found at the body of Dr. Largin, Chief Judge of the Berne Court, has been found at the body of Dr. Largin, Chief Judge of the Berne Court, has been found at the body of Dr. Largin, Chief Judge of the Berne Court, has been found at the body of Dr. Largin, Chief Judge of the Berne Court, has been found at the body of Dr. Largin, Chief Judge of the Berne Court, has been found at the body of Dr. Largin, Chief Judge of the Berne Court, has been found at the body of Dr. Largin, Chief Judge of the Berne Court, has been found at the body of Dr. Largin, Chief Judge of the Bod

THIS CAR NEEDS NO ENGINE. BATTLE WITH LADRONES.

Illinois Central Experimenting with Ball Bearings.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Experiments are being conducted by the Illinois Central Railroad with a device that may revoionize the freight carrying business. experiments are with a box car, trucks of which are fitted with ball-ing journals. They make the car so, easily a single person can tit.

ROBS A BIC MAN

LOCAL. A committee has been appointed by the National Arts Club to receive contribu-

DUCHESS OF MARLBOROUGH STILL PROUD OF AMERICA. Accompanied by Her

Mother and the Vanderbilts She Returns to Visit Her Old Home -Praised by Passengers on Kron Prinz Wilhelm.

to appeal from the decision of Justice Charles H. Fisher, of Nyack, N. Y., who fined him $25 for running an automobile at an excessive rate of speed. Permission was given to Wallace to appeal. Wallace made the claim that his fourteen-year-old son was the owner of the automobile and was running it at the time the rate of speed was complained of. Consuelo, Duchess of Marlborough, made the following statement upon her arrival to-day:

"I am greatly delighted to be again in America. My thoughts Surrogate Silkman, of Westchester have been here at least one-half County, has sent to the Mayor and of dawn, demanded his money or his Chief of Police of Yonkers a letter the time since I left. There is no life in true Dick Turpin style, stating that if the city's pool-rooms are place like America, especially New not closed up in forty-eight hours he York. will take steps to cause the law to be Knocked him down.

Then she swiftly went through his pockets, secured his money and value.

Henforced.

Mayor Walsh has replied calling upon the Surrogate to substantiate the charges he makes.

"England is my home and it is very delightful, but I have been looking forward with longing to

The Duchess arrived on the Kron-The first suit to dissolve a marriage under the Marriage Contract law passed by prinz Wilhelm. She is looking even the last Legislature has been instituted more youthful and slender than when Resorts to Woman's Weapon.

by Mrs. Gussie Singer Blumfeld, the wife of Max Blumfeld, a resident of the east side, said to be worth $100,000, who lives at No. 188 Orchard street. Belmont, Mr. Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, jr., Mr. and negotiating for the purchase of a large Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson and Isbtract of land in that part of Hunting- ert Goelet and Dr. F. W. Chapin.

From the time the big steamship entered quarantine the Duchess stood on the promenade deck watching the familiar sights along the bay. "O, it's perfectly grand to be back again," she said to Mr. Vanderbilt, who stood at her side. "I am so

The big buildings which have been erected since she left were pointed out to her by Mr. Vanderbilt.

The homecoming of the entire party was marred by the announcepounds was caught on a fishhook in ment at Quarantine of the death of enth street the girl sprang out in front of him from behind a high brown stone stoop. She seemed greatly excited.

Appeals to His Gallantry.

Dounds was caught on a fishhook in Kinklehaus, of the Essex Yacht Club, of Newark. The turtle was hauled out with great effort, as it made a desperate resistance.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Fair. The news was first broken to Mr. Vanderbilt, whose wife is a sister of Mr. Feir. Mrs. Vanderbilt, the Duchess and Mrs. Gibson were in the Vanderbilt staterooms, and when he heard the news Mr. Vanderbilt walked in to announce it to his wife. He had been gone but a few moments when all of the women in the stateroom began to cry. Mrs. Vanderbilt, who had enjoyed the trip across immensely, was completely broken down. was sent for, and administered restora-tives to Mrs. Vanderbilt. Mrs. Vanderbilt, who was dressed in a light-colored gown, changed it for a black one. She had no black hat, and Mrs. Gibson took the one she was wearing and gave it to

Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs was the first to greet the Duchess at the pier. She had come down to meet her sister, Mrs. Vancome down to meet her sister, the gangplank to the pier and instantly threw her arms about Mrs. Oelrichs's

The Duchess was greatly pleased to see her old nurse at the pier, and after kissing her repeatedly she asked her said he had been to Carlsbad and had into her own carriage and with her was taken the waters, and that he had gone driven to the Waldorf, where she will over with an idea of having an enjoy-remain for a few days, going thence to Because of social engagements she must be back in London before Oct. 1.

Fair," said Mr. Belmont, "I don't sup-pose that all of the gayeties planned."

was the most light-hearted of the entire party. She romped about the decks, "I saw Mr. Croker at Wantage and mingled freely with the other passen-gers and was one of the leading spirits He is looking much better than when large sum of money among them. Some opened I was unable to tell him much." of the children who were ill have the A big $1,000 white bull dog walked CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 19. — The Duchess to thank for delicacies sent down the gang plank with Mr. Belmont. failure of the Turkish Government to live them from the first cabin table. At her He bought him in London, and is exup to agreements reached long ago on request Dr. Chapin also administered to tremely proud of his purchase.

several questions affecting American in-

Every one who remembered the COULD NOT BELIEVE white silk boa. Duchess at the time of her marriage FAIRS HAD BEEN KILLED commented on her youthful appearance. Although married for more than seven years she is as slender and girlish as before. Her cheeks were as rosy through at first refused to credit it. a slight coat of tan, as though she had never been ill a moment in her life.

and appeared to have seen hard serv-

IN GOOD HEALTH.

Mr. Belmont., who went abroad to return with his wife and the Duchess,

"Because of the death of Mr. and Mrs. be back in London before Oct. I.
On the trip over the American Duchess for the Duchess will take place. Any-is having the time of his life over there. of the interisland steamer Dos Hermanos, which mutinied at Port Viraco, meant to steal $159,000 whiteh they supposed to be on board. The officers were at dinner when attacked.

Mees and was one of the leading spirits in organizing dances and other forms of entertainment aboard.

After the first day out she visited the steerage passengers and distributed a steerage passengers was the suffering children and their mothers.

As she left the steamer the Duchess carried a gold link chain purse which was fairly bursting with gold and greenbacks. She distributed handsome sums to the stewards and other attendants on board the vessel.

The Duchess wore a green crepe dechine dress over white silk taffeta and a big brown picture hat trimmed with bird's wings and ribbon. About her walst was a long, flowing pink and white silken sash tied in a big bow at her back.

A Girlish Matron.

About her neck was a brown and white silk boa.

When told that Devery had said he would not stand for him as a Congress-man, Mr. Belmont simply said:

"Is that so."
On the trip the Duchess and her party organized a syndicate and won two pools, both of which contained more than $1,800.
On the Kronprinz Wilhelm was the Marquis de la Montagne and his wife, who was formerly Miss Barbier, of San Francisco. The Marquis is a captain in the French Army and was the officer who officiated at the degrading of Capt. Dreyfus. He cut the buttons from his coat and broke his sword. He refused to make any statement regarding the Case.

COULD NOT BELIEVE

When told of Mr. Charles L. Fair's death at Quarantine Mr. Vanderbilt

"It can't be true," he said. "Why, I keys. They were useful looking keys could have happened unless one of the near Calcocan, four miles north of Mania. The arrival of reinforcements for the constabulary won them the victory. Four members of the constabulary were killed and one was wounded. The ladrones left three of their number dead behind them, but carried off their wounded.

MORO ATTACKS REPULSED.

MANILA, Aug. B.—The Moros in Mindanao are renewing their attacks on the outposts and pack trains of the American column at Lake Lana. The American column at Lake Lana and the suffered no losses.

The party played bridge whist coming the constabulary was no hard serve it rese exploded. His machine was no harder to stop than any other. "This has broken Mrs. Vanderbilt all up. She was having such an enjoyable time, and then to oe given this shock on landing here was too much for her." Asked about his own automobiles, Mr. Vanderbilt said:

"I've sold every one I possess. I have gotten played bridge whist coming "I've sold every one I possess. I have gotten played up for six months in this lock and property played bridge whist coming "I've sold every one I possess. I have gotten played up for six months in this lock and property of the exceedingly pleasant weather, the played property of the exceedingly pleasant weather, the played property of the exceedingly pleasant weather, the property of the exceedingly played bridge whist coming the property of the constabulary was all Mr. Goelet.

"This has broken Mrs. Vanderbilt all times exploded. His machine was no harder to stop than any other.

"This has broken Mrs. Vanderbilt all times exploded. His machine was no harder to stop than any other.

"This has broken Mrs. Vanderbilt all times exploded. His machine was no harder to stop than any other.

"This has broken Mrs. Vanderbilt all times exploded. His machine was no harder to stop than the times exploded. His machine we.

ture hat ever seen by the customs officers. It measured more than twenty-four inches in diameter and was covered with huge black plumes.

In speaking of her trip over with the Duchess. Mrs. Gibson said:

"The Duchess is the most delightful young woman I have ever met. She is as simple and unaffected as a little child and as democratic as a real American should be, and site made friends right and left coming over. She dislikes notoriety, of course, but knew the newspaper photographers were going to try to snapshot her. Although she refused to allow them to do so, she was kind enough to stand in the sunlight so they could get a few pictures of her.

"Our usual routine on shipboard was after breakfast to read and then aid in exercising Mr. Belmont's bull dog. After dinner we played bridge. For money? On, merey no, only for a cent a point."

When Mrs. Belmont said the Duchess had been exceedingly fond of Mrs. Charles L. Fair, and that the news of the terrible accident which had, befallen Mr. Hard had befallen Mr. Fair and his wife had greatly upset every one.

Among the other passengers were Ru-Amouncement of the engagement which had befallen Mr. Amouncement of the engagement which had befallen Mr. Amouncement of the engagement while had greatly upset every one.

Amouncement of the engagement while had peralty upset every one.

Amouncement of the engagement while had a prominent part in the formal provided of the greatly upset every one.

Amouncement of the engagement while had a prominent part in the formal provided of the greatly upset every one.

Amouncement of the engagement while had a prominent part in the formal provided of the greatly upset every one.

Amouncement of the engagement while had a prominent part in the formal provided of the greatly upset every one.

Amouncement of the engagement while had a prominent part in the formal provided provided the provided of the greatly upset every one.

Amouncement of the engagement while had provided provided the provided provided the provided provided provided pr me second day out one of the stew at sees was approached by the adventuress and $25 changed hands. The never been ill a moment in her life.

As Mr. Robert Goelet aided her in walking down the gangway he caught her by the arm and found haciging to a heavy gold chain a dozen or more keys. They were useful looking keys table beside young Goelet. Not one word did the young man utter

Frank McKee brought with him the manuscript of a new play by Clyde Fitch.

"Fitch is getting better," declared Mr. McKee, as he handled the manuscript but whether he meant physically or that he was writing better plays he would not say.

YOUNG ROBERT GOELET

FOILS ADVENTURESS.

One amusing incident of the voyage was the attempt of an adventuress to make love to young Robert Goele. The woman was rather pretty and about thirty-five years old. Young Goelet is barely of age.

The entire Vanderbilt and Belmont party had a section of the music rooms set apart for their dining table owing to the lowed and day out one of the stew.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

FINCH Refer She lives at 80, 305 Jetters ferson avenue, Brooklyn, and says that there is nothing romantic about her love affair with her aged uncle. Miss Dowie confesses to forty years and her black hair is tinged with gray. During the illness of the late Mrs. Cobb Miss Dowie attended ner, and, in fact, had during her lifetime been a frequent visitor at the home of her mother's sister and uncle. One of Dr. Cobb's daughters, a cousin of Miss Dowie is a teacher in Smith College. It is the purpose of the Couple to be married by the Rev. Livingston L. Taylor, pastor of the Puritan Congregational Church, Brooklyn, of which Miss Dowie is a daughter of Major Dowie, who served with distinction with the One Hundred and Forty-fourth street, New York Volunteers during the civil war. She is a member of the Board of Managers of the Brooklyn Missionary Society.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

William Rusky, of No. 347 East One his death to-day. He was employed in all the fruit he wanted. to his unexpected table companion, nor New Haven and Hartford Railroad at any time during the voyage. The Company. He was engaged filling tenders of engines with coal. Two engines into the trip.

Now Haven and Hartford Railroad hours a day and never realized he possessed a stomach. This diet my husband earnestly recommends to person throughout the trip. the Mott Haven yards of the New York,

TELEGRAPH.

BIG ORDERS FOR ENGINES.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 19.-It is an nounced at Baltimore and Ohio head-quarters that an order would be placed within a few days for 100 additional ocomotives, for delivery next spring. CORTELYOU GOES BACK.

CANTON, O., Aug. 19.-Secretary to he President Cortelyou, who has been guest of Mrs. McKinley, has left for

WIRELESS FOR BOSTON. BOSTON, Aug. 19.—The project of establishing a wireless telegraphy service between Highland Light and Bes-ton is being considered by business men of Boston, chiefly those interested in WIRELESS FOR MIMIC WAR. NEWPORT, Aug. 19 .- A lighter has arrived here with a force of work-nen and set up at Fort Wetherell a Marconi signal mast for the use of the army in the coming manoeuvres. Other masts are to be placed at Block Island and at Napatee Point, at the entrance of Long Island Sound.

AUTO FIT FOR A PRESIDENT. HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 19 .- Presiient Roosevelt is to have a ride through the principal streets here Friday afternoon in the handsomest victoria auto ever made in the country. The machine has just been completed by a Hartford firm.

ROOSEVELTS AT ILLINOIS FAIR. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 19.-Plans are partially completed for President are partially completed for President Roosevelt's reception on Oct. 2 at the State Fair. The President and the Cablnet members will be guests of the State Board of Agriculture. After luncheon at the Leland Hotel they will go to the fair grounds, where the President will deliver an address and hold a reception. Later he will dine at the Executive Mansion. In the evening the President will go to Chicago, on the invitation of four Republican clubs there.

FINED AS HIS CHAUFFEUR WAS NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 19.-George McFadden, whose chauffeur was fined $10 and costs for over-speeding his automobile yesterday, was fined a like sum for over-speeding while he himself was in charge of the machine. KNIFE FOR AMBASSADOR MEYER.

BOSTON, Aug. 19 .- George von L. Meyer, United States Ambassador to Italy, has entered a private hospital to undergo an operation similar to the one performed some time ago. It is un-derstood that the trouble is not of se-

ROBBED WRONG HENROOST. NEWBURG, Aug. 19.-"If I had just a few price hints: NEWBURG, Aug. 19.—'If I had known, Jedge, that it was your hennery. I would have tackled some other. Gee, but your justice is quick!" Thus spoke Paul Grazraven when he was arraigned in the police court before Justice Samuel B. Rogers at Fishkill Landing. He got one year.

KILLED BY 2,200 VOLTS. NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Aug. 19.—H. E. McGuigan was killed by 2,000 volts of electricity passing through his body. He was in the employ of the Westinghouse Compay and came ere from Pittslurg.

GREAT CROPS ASSURED.

MEXICO, Mo., Aug. 19.-The great ain needed to put the finishing touch on the great crop, probably the largest in the history of the Western country since it was settled by the white man, has come. The people are rejoicing.

TO IMPORT IRON AND STEEL. CAMDEN, N. J. Aug. 19.—The New York Shipbuilding Company has bought 80,000 tons of manufactured from and 80,000 tons of manufactured iron and steel from the Lancashire Iron Company of Scotland. This is one of the largest orders for iron and steel gives in this country to a foreign company

Fair and his wife had greatly upset every one.

Among the other passengers were Rudolnh Aaronson, who has arranged to bring over a violinist known as "Kocian." whom he claims is a greater artist than Rubelik.

Frank McKee brought with him the manuscript of a new play by Clyde Fitch.

Brooklyn, a niece of his first wife, who died two years ago.

Announcement of the engagement made by the Rev. Dr. Cobb comes as a great surprise to Miss Dowie's many friends here. She lives at No. 263 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn, a niece of his first wife, who died two years ago.

Miles to take a prominent part in the great surprise to Miss Dowie's many friends here. She lives at No. 263 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn, a niece of his first wife, who died two years ago.

Miles to take a prominent part in the great surprise to Miss Dowie's many friends here. She lives at No. 263 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn, a niece of his first wife, who made an official call at Army, quarters to formally invite Gen. Miles the wishes of the veterans were communicated to Col. Whitney.

MAN HOUSEKEEPER. Tried It Ninety Days.

There is one case on record where man had a good easy time of it while his wife was away, and she tells the tale. "Circumstances made it necessary for me to leave husband for a month to pursue his bachelordom as best he could. He resolved to give Grape-Nuts a thorough trial, as he had for years been subject to bilious attacks and indigestion.

"During my absence he gained in weight and his health seemed perfect, therefore I give you for the benefit of suffering men in particular, and women in general, his menu for the 90 days: Four teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts sprinkled with a little Coal Barrow Falls on Laborer, salt and covered with good cream, one slice of bread and butter, one large cup of Postum Cereal Coffee Hundred and Forty-eighth street, fell to (made according to directions) and

"He worked during the time nine hours a day and never realized he woman was a very much desappointed person throughout the trip.

KILLED BY ELECTRICITY.

BUFFALO, N. Y. Aug. 19.—James Patrick Woods, the fifteen-year-old son of Patrick J. Woods, of No. 949 Exchange street, was found dead on the West Shore ore dock. He had been electrocuted. A live electric light wire was found hangin near the boy. More than 2,000 voits are supposed to kave passed through als body.

STENOGRAPE HOLDSTERE IN TWO engines with coal. Two engines of fice men, students and to all peoplic of sedentary habits especially, and let me tell it to all wives, this meal can be prepared by an inexperienced servant, a young son or daughter, thereby saving yourself hours of labor. Try it. It will make hours of labor. Try it. It will make your work lighter, your purse heavier, your work lighter, your purse heavier, your work lighter, your body healthier and all of you happier." Name given by the lamb almost instantly. meal can be prepared by an inexpection of uarness-makers. 2 Waiters ...

Six Gas Jets Turned On an a Seventh Lighted by the Plotter-Foiled by Oper Door and Transom.

Early this morning an attempt wa made to blow up the barber shop of Phillip Martinelli, No. 270 Grove street Jersey City. Six gas jets were turned on and a seventh one lighted, in orde to explode the gas when a sufficien quantity had filled the shop. Martinelli neglected to lock the fron door of his shop. The person responsible fesserserBesser an alley on the north side of the Home of the Friendless, forced his way to go the first side of the Home of the Friendless, forced his way to go the first side of the Home of the Friendless, forced his way to go the first side of the Home of the Friendless, forced his way to go the first side of the Home of the Friendless, forced his way to go the first side of the Home of the Friendless, forced his way to go the first side of the Home of the Friendless, forced his way to go the first side of the Home of the Friendless, forced his way to go the first side of the Home of the Friendless, forced his way to go the first side of the Home of the Friendless, forced his way to go the first side of the Home of the Friendless, forced his way to go the first side of the Home of the Friendless, forced his way to go the first side of the Home of the Friendless, forced his way to go the first side of the Home of the Friendless, forced his way to go the Home of the Friendless side of the Home of the wire net and climbed through a tran som over the rear door. He left by the som over the rear door. It to to same way and neglected to close the transom. This gave most of the gas chance to escape.

When Martinelli opened his shop the morning he was nearly suffocated. The police are investigating the matter and expect to make an arrest before many hours.

NEW YORKER MURDERED.

Body of Man Supposed to Be Moses Tunick Found in Iowa.

RED OAK, Ia., Aug. 19.-The body of man, supposed to be Moses Tunick, of New York, has been found hidden under some weeds near this place. His skull is crushed in, and a coupling pin was found nearby. The body had evidently lain there some time. It is thought that the man was murdered by tramps, as a number camped near the place a short time ago.

Important Sale of Groceries!

We will offer To-morrow, Wednesday, & large assortment of pure, wholesome Groceries at very special prices. Wise Housekeepers will attend this sale, for there will be scores of chances for money saving-

ARMOUR'S SUGAR CURED HAMS, 1b., 1540
POTTED OX TONGUES, 2 lb. cans... 466
SWEET BREADS, 1 lb. cans... 466
SWEET BREADS, 1 lb. cans... 246 Cans
COLUMBIA RIVER SALMON, 14 1b. fast cans
Per Dozen Cans
1.75 and 1.10
NEW PACK SHRIMP, natural juice, can, RING, can, 14c.; doz. NEW PACK CANADIAN HADDIES, can, 14c. IMPORTED SARDINES (small 4s), finest oil. 7c.; doz. HOME-MADE JAMS, all kinds, jar, 15c.;

HOME-MADE JAME, doz. MAINE CORN (Welcome Brand), can, 9c-124c LIME JUICE, quart bottles. 24c IMPORTED GINGER ALE (Belfast). 120 IMPORTED GINGER BEER (Belfast). 120 IMPORTED GINGER BEER (Belfast). 120

Our Teas are Unexcelled. All Groceries Guaranteed as repre-

All Cash Purchases of Groceries deree to any railroad station within 100 miles of N. Y. City.

6th Ave., 20th to 21st St.

WORLD

Morning's World.

335 Paid Help Wants in the 19 Other New York Papers Combined.

BAKERS 3 KITCHENWORK BINDERY BARTENDERS 3 LAUNDRESSES. BLACKSMITHS ... 6 LUNCHMEN BOOKKEEPERS 6 MEN BOYS ... 14 MOULDERS CANVASSERS NECKWEAR CARPENTERS CARRIAGE HANDS. OPERATORS 3 PAINTERS CASHIERS CHAMBERMATDS PAPER-HANGERS CHANDELIERS ... 3 PASSEMENTERIE AT PLUMBERS COMPOSITORS . POLISHERS CLEANERS . PORTERS . CROCHETERS PRESSERS DISHWASHERS SALESMEN DRESSMAKERS . SHOEMAKERS14 SIGNS

DRIVERS12 SIGNS
DBUG CLERKS..... 4 SPINNERS FEEDERS . .. 13 STENOGRAPHERS ... 10 HEMSTITCHERS 3 WIREWORKERS

UPHOLSTERERS USEFUL MEN ..

Always at Your Aid. 979 Paid Help Wants in This